Ardh Sainik Credit Cooperative Society (AsCops)

“Let’s Grow together - First time for Soldiers Community”

1. Ardh Sainik Credit Cooperative Society (AsCops):

A co-operative society is a voluntary association of individuals having common needs who join hands for the achievement of common social and financial interest. Its aim is to serve the interest of the needy sections of society through the principle of self-help. A cooperative society is formed with the main objective to serve the people and develop the economic condition within society. This co-operative society register under the Multi State Cooperative Society Act, 2002.

The entire soldier’s community are deployed in far flung areas as well as on the borders of the country. As and when at the time of need, our soldiers face various challenges to support the family requirement due to various reasons. Therefore, there is an urgent need to set up a Society, where, our soldier may get instant help of finance and services to fulfill personal and family requirements. Accordingly, The Ardh Sainik Credit Cooperative Society (AsCops) is proposed. The purpose of AsCops is to provide financial and other services to the members with the aim to encourage them towards productivity, savings, investments and growth in life.

2. Initiative of Ardh Sainik Welfare Trust (Regd.)
